

Criminal Justice - Corrections Curriculum Map

Courses and Activities Mapped to Criminal Justice A.A. Outcome Set

Outcome
1.1 street crime	1.2 prisoner populations	1.3 criminal justice system	1.4 available services	1.5 history	1.6 evaluate cases	1.7 defense	1.8 critical thinking	1.9 tribal justice	1.10 correctional methods
Students will summarize a global understanding of the Michigan Department of Corrections and be able to describe the impact that street crime has on the prison population.	Students will explain a basic understanding of the prisoner populations within the prison setting, the prisoners' needs when they are entering prison, and the prisoners' needs while they are serving out their sentence.	Students will give examples of the criminal justice system, its policies and procedures, the different levels of corrections, the responsibilities of correctional officers, and the legal issues that surround the Department of Corrections	Students will categorize the different services available to prisoners, the various personalities of the prisoners and what these personalities may indicate in regard to prisoner behaviors, and the responsibilities of the correctional officer as it pertains to prisoner rehabilitation.	Students will be able to organize the history of corrections in the United States, the prisoner rehabilitation process, explain what life is like within the prison, and describe the key issues affecting the safety and security of the facility.	Students will evaluate criminal cases that have shaped the current correctional departments, differentiate among the procedures that prisoners may use to attempt to overturn their case while incarcerated, and appraise the judicial system.	Students will be able to formulate defensible views regarding the responsibilities of a correctional officer as she/he communicate both with prisoners and staff in a correctional facility.	Students will understand and be able to apply logical thought processes which include critical thinking to solve correctional situations.	Students will demonstrate the ability to answer general questions regarding the indigenous justice system and tribal society, the use of the talking circle, The Seven Fires, and the Native tradition of justice.	Students will distinguish various correctional methods when dealing with prisoners.

Courses and Learning Activities
CJ 101 Introduction to Corrections	✓	✓		✓	✓			✓	✓
CJ 112 Client Relations in Corrections		✓	✓	✓			✓	✓	✓
CJ 201 Introduction to Criminal Justice	✓						✓		✓
CJ 212 Institutional Corrections		✓	✓	✓	✓		✓	✓	✓
CJ 215 Corrections Client Growth and Development		✓		✓		✓	✓	✓	✓
CJ 221 Correctional Law		✓	✓			✓	✓	✓	✓

Legend: ✓ = Aligned

Last Modified: 09/14/2016 02:41:53 PM

Printed on: 03/20/2017 12:31:12 PM (EST)

created with  taskstream